Professional Development: The International Journal of Continuing Social Work Education is a refereed journal concerned with publishing scholarly and relevant articles on continuing education, professional development, and training in the field of social welfare. The aims of the journal are to advance the science of professional development and continuing social work education, to foster understanding among educators, practitioners, and researchers, and to promote discussion that represents a broad spectrum of interests in the field. The opinions expressed in this journal are solely those of the contributors and do not necessarily reflect the policy positions of The University of Texas at Austin's School of Social Work or its Center for Social Work Research.

Professional Development: The International Journal of Continuing Social Work Education is published three times a year (Spring, Summer, and Winter) by the Center for Social Work Research at 1 University Station, D3500 Austin, TX 78712. Journal subscriptions are $110. Our website at www.profdevjournal.org contains additional information regarding submission of publications and subscriptions.

*12th International Symposium of the Inter-University Consortium
for International Social Development (IUCISD)*

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT, PUBLIC EXPENDITURE, AND PARTICIPATION: THE SHARING OF SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Istanbul, Turkey
June 19–23, 2001

The 12th symposium of the Inter-University Consortium for International Social Development takes a holistic view and brings to focus integration of social and economic aspects of social development. The symposium aims to bring together scholars, practitioners, and donor institutions from diverse fields and disciplines in the search for sustainable and multifaceted solutions to problems of development. Furthermore, the symposium will consider social development aspects of Turkey's 1999 earthquake experience.
